I'm getting some heat from our admin for posting this, so I will only say it was a Philadelphia group. I don't want anyone to make more trouble. I've already had to remove a few friends from my life due to personal conflicts with our Frater.

Second thoughts after Lupercalia? Is this normal?

I live in New Jersey right across the bridge from Philadelphia; I attended events regularly including the last Ritual that hosted Lucien, Shiva, and Hollow Axis. It was fun aside from Axis "patrolling" the bar for "Antifa Catholics" I thought that was weird but hey, we've gotten harassed by other groups in the city before so it made sense. I'm a bigger girl, currently in transition, and not at all comfortable with my body image at the moment and today felt... weird. Waking up to see my Twitter feed flooded with nudes/lewdns/beautified...
